

12 Simple Things You Can Do...

...in the coming year to help NEIS win the fight for safe-energy and a less-nuclear world.

NEIS, like so many other environmental and non-profit organizations finds itself literally in a struggle for survival. New important issues (“nuclear renaissance,” Exelon’s new reactor plans, leaking reactors and planned rate hike, whistle-blower allegations, “depleted uranium”, etc.), and the continued disappearance of other regional and national safe-energy groups make it imperative that NEIS survives and grows.
